FARMVILLE.

The horrors of th t hanging still hovers over our town. The murder was foul and fiendish, but the execution of outraged law should not send terror to the heart of an unoffendin g community.

Our city Fathers are contemplating other improvements to our streets and side walks and are ready to invest in the project as much as $10,000. The suggestion is made that the work be done on Main Street and it should be made as attractive as practicable, but I wonder that the denizens of East Farmville don't rise and de nand that the next money be s ent for their comfort and convenience. So far they have been neglected while the star of improvements has been moving steadily westward. The same is true of Nations however, as well as of communities. "Wise men" we are told, "came from the East."

The New Year is also very old to us and we are dealing with it as with a familiar friend. The fact is sunrise and sunset, day and night, buying and selling, resting and working, clear weather and clou y, the same old story as romantic and tragic and pathetic as ever. We all write it 1907 just as we wrote 1906. I notice a few more gray hairs on some heads, a few more wrinkles on some brows, a little less of agility in some steps, a little more of stoop about some shoulders, a fading o light from some eyes and o' healthrosen from some c eeks; but then again I notice a new glow about other countenances, a new gleam about other eyes, a new serenity on other brows, and a quickened step as others walk our streets.

I have heard no merchant complain of dull times, no banker that business was not satisfactory, no doctor that he was too busy, no laborer that w ges were too low, no dispensary employee that sales were dull, no warehouseman that the farmers had destroyed his business, while all scholars are in love with all teachers, and all pew holders all preachers. There is no boom in all this but a great blessing for which I believe our people are duly grateful.

Farmville is moving against the Tidewater & Western Railway Company for better facilities She gave the first $50,000 to the Farmville & Powhatan, predecessors of the T. & W. and has a right to expect ordinary conveniences and scant courtesies. So far the road has been run to the detriment of our town rather than its help. The passenger trains arriving here come in after business hours and leave in the morning before the stores open, so that to do shopping here a citizen of Cumberland or Powhatan coming by that road would consume parts of three days. The railroad authorities should give the relief without being forced to. The road is evidently doing a good freight bu iness and is being run on most economical plans. We are glad to know it, for believe that the corporation is making money and only ask that it 'tote fair.' That's no unreasonable demand.

Some of our prudent homeowners 'made garden' in the fall, but not as many as should. In the 'good old times' as some people are wont to speak of by gone days, especially the by gone days of Southland, our gardens wer spaded in the fall or made into hills and then when Spring dawned they were ready to be 'tickled' by the hoes and rakes. I remember one of our old citizens familiarly known as Mr. 'Ben' Wright, who took great delight in his garden and who took special pride in walking out on Main St. to exhibit an earlier potatoe, or pea, or tomatoe than his neighbor co ld show. If I were asked to name the leading gardeners of the present day I would name in Mrs. W. G. Dunnington of the county and Mr. W. M. Duvall of the city. And after all the busy housewife is the busiest worker known to earth.

Our spring term of Circuit court begins on the 19th of March. The docket is a light one and will soon be disposed of.

Our new postmaster is selling stamps at the same old price and our mails come and go as before.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Price paid a pleasant visit to friends in town last week.

Mr. Dr. Spencer gave a delightful evening in honor of Miss Lucy Eggleston, of Charlotte.

Miss Stringfellow, who has been often a most welcomed visitor to our town is expected to return and make her h me at Mrs. Wade's.

Mr. Wallace Burnett, of Washington, D C. was a recent visitor in town.

Hamden Sidney's 22nd of February celebration was never more brilliant. The historic "Hill" was crowded with visitors and the young people had the 'time of their lives.' The orators were 'spell binders,' the dancers were graceful, the maidens were bewitching and the hospitality of the people was generous and gracious This venerable school of learning would gain nothing by being removed to Richmond. Union Seminary went t nere a money-lender and is now begging for quite a quar er million of dollars. Better le well enough a one.'

The winter is still with us, but Spring is a coming.

Now and then we get a mess of 'turnip tops' but not as often as we should.

It seems that eggs are never to be a cent a piece again.

When our farmers have won out in their fight for profits on their tobacco crops they ought to be happy for every other article they have for the market commands good prices. I rejoice that the brighter day is dawning for them and when it has broken upon them in full orbed beauty, no one of their heroic band of fighters will be deserving of more credit than will Mr. E. T. Bonsmant, of Prince Edward, who has been in the very fore front of the battle. He knows all about farm life and knows too how to talk and how to write.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if often, if when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depends upon it, the cause of the infirmity is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant affliction is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. On Monday, 4th, the committee charged with seeing after the educational exhibit to be sent to Jamestown, met at Dillwyn and organized for business, electing Rev. Mr. Humphries as chairman and Miss A. P. Jones Secretary, a trustee from each district has also been chosen to act with the committee, this was done on the recommendation of the State Superintendent. Materials to be used in map-drawing and other kinds of drawing have been ordered for Mayesville district and teachers in this district who want a supply of these materials to be used by pupils in their respective schools, can get the same by applying to Mr. H. If there is any truth in the old saying "when March comes in like a lamb it will go out like a lamb," we may reasonably hope that the reverse may be true this year, that it may go out like a lamb, since it came in with such fury.

Postmaster Noble and Clerk Hubard both went on a business trip to Richmond last week.

Merchants are already getting in spring goods and one of the merchants here has displayed excellent taste in the selection of dra s good; I saw a number of ladies ga hered in the store, and as each piece was handed them they were outspoken in their admiration. Our merchants can sell you just as good values for your money as you can get in the large department stores and they will keep the class of goods your trade demands if you will patronize them.

The people here have responded to the call for aid to the starving millions in China. A part of the money will be sent through the Christian Herald and a part through the Central Presbyterian. The ground hog is getting in some pretty good licks this Thursday morning; the snow is just coming down as one of the younger set would say 'to beat the band.' I have finished getting in the stove wood for a week's supply, rolled up the water, 'we got in on wheels,' prepared in the meal barrel, took note of the wood pile, now sitting by a good fire, mouth watering for the pan cakes the old woman is going to give me for waiting on her so nicely.

Writing to you with a good appetite, love abounding for all, and laughing at the ground hog's didos I have no special news this a. m., nothing startling, I am glad to say; have heard of no serious calamity to any.

Some are still sick. Our old comrade Thos. H. O'Brien, is right much under the weather. Hope he will soon be himself again. Tom was one of the first to leave the county for the army. He was in most of the battles from Rich Mountain July 61 to Appomattox April 65. Good soldier he was. The old fellows are on the march on the western slope, still in an enemy's country. Say old fellow have you got on the right uniform, marching under the right captain, armed with the proper implements? Ely or ier of the Captain read Eph. 6 11-18 and sing "When the Roll is Called up Yonder I'll be There." Well, God bless the old veterans. Amen.

The good book says Bless ed are the dead who die in the Lord." I heard an old aunt say many years ago that she knew Fannie Saunders as a school girl, she knew her as Fannie Trent in womanhood and she knew her always as a good woman. I never heard ought against her. She was buried at the home of her son W. G. Trent.

A joke was told on Jesse Lee, the old Methodist preacher that he had reproved two young lawyers who threatened to give him a flogging, several years had passed without the flogging; passing through a village on horse back he was soon overtaken by the two young men. They rode up, one on either side and commenced a conversation by asking the old parson his occupation. He told them he sometimes preached and sold books, and they asked him if he ever misquoted Scripture, and he told them he did, they wanted to know if he corrected himself, he said so oetimes he did at others he did not, to illustrate said he, "I undertook some time ago while preaching, to quote the passage, which says. 'all liars shall have their portion in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone' and I said all lawyers, I thought the mistake so slight I did not correct it." Brother Jessie did not know some that I know. Not long since the peasant army was created by the enemy in whose country i s are. A number of witnesses had been summoned, good opening for fees and cost, a certain lawyer appeared as counsel for one of the parties and without fee or reward put forth sibly without thanks brought about a compromise with but little cost to either. I think he had read and was putting into practice the sermon on the mount—Blessed are the Peace makers. A few days after I saw another lawyer have a conversation with a party a few feet away from a groupe, when he returned with a wink and smile putting a roll of bills in his pocket. I was like a little boy in Mrs. Higgins cabbage patch Thinks I to myself, I heard an argument some years ago between a sprightly strenuous Baptist young lady and a witty Methodist preacher on baptism. She was trying to convince the Methodist preacher that immersion was the right and only mode, he contended for the three modes as practiced by Methodists. "Why," said she, "even the unlearned and ignorant believe immersion." "Yes," he told her he had long since found that to be the fact. I have heard it said some people would not join the Baptist church because it was so many negroes that believed in its doctrine, some others said they would not join the Methodist church because they believed 'too much in shouting, but I never heard until recently that a certain preacher was not called upon to marry a couple for the reason he married so many common people. Of the many desirable things in this life one is common sense. It is what Solomon prayed for and what many of us need.

Everybody in these parts knows Billy Hix; he spent the night at Andersonville a short time ago with Mr Pickett, of Colorado examining a farm.

All who live near the Rock Mill can get their grits ground and where the deserving one never went away empty handed. A young lady was here this morning wanted to sell me a blaster. I told her I would take one if she had one for the tongue.

You know, by the way, I must tell you this one on my friend McCraw, and I am done until I come to the postscript part. McCraw and I attended Judge Coleman's first term of court for this county, during opening we commenced a whispering conversation and kept it up; the Judge ordered the sheriff to keep order, not knowing we were interrupting the court the Judge ordered both before him and to pay a fine of $5. At the close of the term the Judge ordered the money paid back. We both have been told of one when we would caution others about talking that it had never cost them $5.

If my little friend Louise can get the tongue blaster she will find many patients.

It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return f any of those symptoms during the four year that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recomend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."

Danger of Pneumonia.

Well the robins have come again and the frogs are 'singing' on the creeks and swamps and the warm sunshine makes one think the spring is coming. Soon the 'sows will go forth to sow'—May the seed fall in 'good ground' and may it bring forth an hundredfold.'

Farmers are beginning to hustle as all around is seen the smoke from plant beds. Most of the tobacco has been sold. Mr. T. W. Odor went to Lynchburg with tobacco last Thursday. Mr. W. F. Coleman to Pamplins last week.

Mr. Robert Wooldridge has moved in his nice newhouse. Mr. Wooldridge is somewh t better.

Rumor has it that one one of the Buckingham boys will soon wed one of Lynchburg's most charmin, girls. What about it Brownallen? Now we are just expecting a car from the 'old bachelor from Toga.' Expect that is why the Times hasn't heard from down that way lately.

Mr. Ben Cole expected to go to Pittslyvania Saturday last, but bad weather prevented.

Mr. George Coleman, Jr., visited his sister, Mrs. Paul Warren, in Roanoke on Sunday last.

Mrs. C. N. Abbitt and Miss Bernice and Landon Cole, who have been quite sick are much improved.

Miss M. Louise Wirgfield, who is attending school at Blackstone, is visiting her home folks.

We are sorry to note the illness of Mr. P. G. Wingfield.

Thanks to Long Creek for kind mention. It is pleasant to be appreciated.

In a recent letter from an old Appomatox boy, but now of Roanoke, he says: He both enjoy the Times so much, and always have a scramble as to which shall read it first.

We understand that Mr. Ellis Oden has purchased and located a saw mill on Reedy Creek.

Hixburg.

What has become of the Hixburg correspondent? Hope he has not let the ground hog run him off. It is a hard for him to 'dodge' to leave us. We look through our windows and see the ground covered with snow.

We still have some sick ones in our midst. Miss Mary Harvey continues quite ill, also her brother Mr. Hilary Harvey.

Mrs. H. M. Marshall, who has been sick for several weeks, is improving.

Miss Fannie Gilliam has been complaining for several days. Mr. Floyd Gilliam is confined to his room with a cold. (What would you do Floyd if Miss Fannie should leave you?)

Mrs. Wm. Dan'l. Hix, who was paralyzed, is much better, being able to walk around the yard.

Mr. John Marshall, one of our most prosperous farmers, is building a new dwelling, and we hear it will be a 'thing of beauty.' (We also hear faint rumors of wedding bells in the near future.)

We have very few young people in our neighborhood now and what few we have seem to be drawn to Charlotte. We wonder what it means.

Miss Lillian Glenn has gone to Roanoke and one of our young men is out of a job for two nights in a week.

Mr. Lester Sears is sick with a cold. Snow-falling and night air do not agree with him.

Mr. Phil Gilliam has lots of business these days.

Judging from the way things look there will be several men in my fix—Those who are out are trying to get in and those who are in are afraid they will never get out.)

Best wishes for the TIMES.

A CARD.

That highly bred California Stallion Mc. Ioona, is now permanently standing at my stock barns where he may be seen and where also many of his fine colts, which took first prizes at Lynchburg Fair may be seen. Remember that Mcioona himself is a prize winner and has fine qualities, style and action fully sustain his high breeding and registered pedigree. Call at the farm and see him and get his pedigree.

I am now at my farm where I at all times pay the highest cash prices for all kinds of live-stock. I hope to be of better service to the farmers of Appomattox and this section than ever before.

Very truly,
JOSEPH O'BRIEN,
Appomattox, Va.

Deafness cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
